4. Habitual and Vexatious Complaints

- 4.1. Councils will endeavour to deal with complaints in an efficient, equitable and effective manner.
- 4.2. The council may have to initiate further action, if the complainant behaves in ways which can: impede the investigation of the complaint; have significant resource implications; hinder the complaints service for others; be offensive, abusive or threatening.

5. Aims of this Section

- 5.1. The aim of the council is to manage each case properly, consistently, fairly and respectfully and ensure that the complaint, not the complainant, is the issue during any procedure and decision making.
- 5.2. It is important to establish guidelines for identifying habitual or vexatious complainants and that any decisions made follow agreed guidelines and procedures.

6. Guidelines

- 6.1. Councils will try to keep open the lines of communication with appropriate support e.g. clarifying the reason for the outcome; offering relevant support for a complainant with special needs; suggesting an independent representative to help present their case.
- 6.2. Any action taken as a result of proven persistent and/or vexatious complaint will be proportionate to the degree of annoyance/aggravation caused.

7. Procedure

7.1. The possibility of there being an unreasonably persistent and/or vexatious complaint will be brought to the attention of the chairman or vice chairman to ensure that the complaint has been dealt with according to the council's complaints procedure.

7.2. The chairman or vice chairman will contact the complainant in an effort to resolve the situation.

7.3. In the case of a meeting, if there is a personality issue, the complainant may nominate another councilor who will be made aware of all the facts. A complainant may wish to bring a representative. The council will give appropriate support (e.g. special needs) to the complainant in choosing a representative etc.

7.4. The chairman/vice chairman will:

- Listen to the grievance/complaint
- Assure the complainant of confidentiality with personal details
- Carefully explain what action the council has taken within its remit to resolve the complaint
- Offer any relevant support about the complaints procedure to the Complainant
- Suggest complaint routes available if complaint is outside the council's remit
- Explain how the complainant's actions are of concern but are hampering the complaints procedure
- Explain what actions the council may take
- Seek an assurance that the persistent/unreasonable nature of complaint will be addressed

7.5. The outcome and relevant details of the meeting will be noted.

8. Decision

- 8.1. If the complainant continues to behave in unreasonable and/or vexatious way, the chairman or vice chairman will seek the approval of the council to follow the policy and agree what action(s) to take, e.g. restrict or refuse any further contact.
- 8.2. The complainant will be advised by letter from the clerk of this action, including any further actions the complainant may take with other bodies including their right to obtain independent advice.
- 8.3. The council will record the decision and hold all relevant correspondence except all personal details about the complaint and the complainant, which will be stored appropriately in line with the Data Protection Act.
- 8.4. The clerk will notify all councillors and members of staff as appropriate.
- 8.5. Any new complaint from any person who has come under the policy must be treated on its merit.

9. Review

- 9.1. The decision taken at Section 8 will be reviewed after 6 months. The complainant will be notified of the result if the decision to apply the policy has been reversed.

The Clerk has the ultimate authority to remove any material which in the Parish Council's view is derogatory, discriminatory, defamatory, offensive or which brings the Parish Council into disrepute.
